DEFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY.

SUNDAY MORNING, : : : SEPT. 17, 1871 THE FUTURE OF THE APPEAL. one understands better than ourselves that the Press, by which we mean true journalism, has greatly advanced in character, ability and influence. try and enterprise, has been more favorably affected by the general causes of the human mind produced by political changes that have taken place, ples and fundamental rules of government by the people, particularly in our own land; the extension of commercial and political relations among civilized countries, and of intercourse with barbarous tribes, and the increased facilities for voyage travel and telegraphic communication; the wonderful cheapness of publications, which has brought knowledge within the reach of the poorest classes of the communitythese, and many other causes, have current intelligence of the times. In e word, more completely than ever this demand, the versatile talents of cable in the American breest. the most successful and influential men have been called into requisi-

"A map of busy life

Democracy, and to organize them into an impregnable and victorious phawhich will be properly decid- gives utterance to this sound doctrine: National Convention. e should tone in our public life, and !nsist that a hundred overlasting principles, in. is no question but that, by their printhe criminations lately indulged in noble the public life." should be continued, so much bad centre to circumference. we could wish, we would be able to breathe freely, to look around us, and their new to start anew, with hope and heart to start anew to start establish our liberties. It is time for and their posterity forever."

the discussion of a question, fruitful THE BIBLE-THE RIVER OF EGYPT. SOMETHING ABOUT ADVESTISING. NDAY APPEAL the discussion of a question, fruitful of evil and pregnant with disaster, to Not only do geological but geographof evil and pregnant with disaster, to Notoniy do geological out geographical and historical researches conming with advertisements, to which Historical Society was enlivened by all mementoes which memory con-Democratic party will heed the wants stantly give augmented credibility to we call the attention of our readers. Instories Society was enlivened by Democratic party will heed the wants of n people. It has always held the recitals of fact contained in the the recitals of fact contained in the distriction of our national public opinion, and when that public opinion changes, and when the contained in the Everything published in our advertising published in our adv organization of the APPEAL Publishing Company has been completed, and the paper makes its appearance of the and the paper makes its appearance through a constitutional process into gave force to his projound Christian the public begins to see that our organic law. If errors have been faith, and learning and scientific into this morning under new auspices.

The charter granted by the Legis-Lature of Tennessee, is still re- made, we must look to time, the heal- ter of Genesis the sublimest historical means of bringing together the prolature of Tennessee, is still retained, and the Stockholders and consumers and the Stockholders and consumers are sections of a healthy poem ever chanted in tents, deserts, has goods to sell and he who desires the subliment for temples churches or by the fireside. tained, and the Stockholders and er, and to the demands of a hearthy bear to be the fireside. has goods to sell and he who desires and enlightened public sentiment for temples, churches or by the fireside. has goods to sell and he who desires and enlightened public sentiment for temples, churches or by the fireside. These reflections are suggested by in-M. C. Gallaway, J. M. Keating, the desired change. One thing is cer-M. C. Gallaway, J. M. Keating, and L. J. Dupre, editors. The exand L. J. DuPre, editors. The experience of a life-time admonishes us averted or revolutionary and fraudu-tion of the Suez Canal, leading, as be known, but which do not properly waved and often been shorn and made belong to the every day budget of the beauty of the discovery of goods. perience of a me-time aumonishes us lent enactments repealed unless the they did, to the discovery of geolog- belong to the every day budget of into hay. of the grave responsibilities that have been delegated to us; but we enter been delegated to us; but we enter been delegated to us; but we enter of the grave responsibilities that have been delegated to us; but we enter upon our duties, we trust, in a spirit of enlarged patriotism and conciliation, and we hope, by giving our body and mind, heart and brain to the task we have undertaken, to win the confidence, respect and patronage of fidence, respect and patronage of fitted to us; but we enter the puzzle of biblical commentators, this powerial auxiliary of trade has puzzle of biblical commentators, this powerial auxiliary of trade has secured to many not only a competite to many not fidence, respect and patronage of a just and generous public. No one understands better than ourselves party triumphs. To secure this result, Egypt constituted the western competitors. In fact, the business was organized to take this duty in party triumphs. To secure this result, let us unite in a common and vigor- boundary of the Holy Land. Just world regards the press as the heart of whose efforts in developing the archerology of this creations, enjoyments even, as various as are those of earth—but far let us unite in a common and vigorous effort. Let no minor differences what was asserted by biblical writers our social system, performing ology of this spot have seemed to justify the recommendation that a grant line to be the property of the property in the poly politic the tify the recommendation that a grant line is a common and vigorous effort. Let no minor differences what was asserted by biblical writers our social system, performing ology of this spot have seemed to justify the recommendation that a grant line is a common and vigorous effort. Let no minor differences what was asserted by biblical writers in the life that a grant line is a common and vigorous effort. Let no minor differences what was asserted by biblical writers in the life that a grant line is a common and vigorous effort. Let no minor differences what was asserted by biblical writers in the life that a grant line is a common and vigorous effort. Let no minor differences what was asserted by biblical writers in the life that a grant line is a common and vigorous effort. Let no minor differences what was asserted by biblical writers in the life that a grant line is a common and vigorous efforts in developing the archive and the life that a grant line is a common and vigorous efforts. in character, ability and influence, of opinion distract our counsels, or imNo other department of human industry and enterprise, has been more fa ous enort. Let no initial distract our counsels, or imwas meant; and they, to whom it was she belived—and as is so beautifully exlived—and as is so beautifully exthe good and wise. Let us invoke oughly, the good and wise. Let us invoke oughly.

It is written, "Unto thy seed have current through every ramification land here uncovered. which have accelerated and confirmed and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to themprogress and improvement in the and freedom; by their duty to the and freedom; by their duty to the and freedom; by the and freedom; by the and freedom; by the and freedom; by the angle of the nineteenth century. The agits ons selves and posterity; by their recollections of the true glory and just re- phrates," The word Nahar, river, and public resemblies. The success of ing in charge the exhibit of newly nown of our common country; by not Yeor, the name of the Nile, is those who advertise most liberally and intensely interesting detail of the every ennobling motive, let us entreat used. In Exodus the same western has convinced all that advertising is facts, relics and traditions, supported them to unite in an effort to boundary of Judea is designated as in a paying investment. The advertisand diversified discussions of princiwill sincerely and zealously labor to the Red Sea even unto the sea of the circulates extensively, are a marvel-suited to the tastes of our busy and great at ability and knowledge of fact that in a remote age there was a teen advertising columns, and at were given by eye-witnesses and laborengrossed people; and has been unitheir subjects, who are conscientiously continuous sheet of water connecting the rate of fifteen hundred dollars per ers who had been employed to reengrossed people; and has been uni-versally adopted as the readiest and devoted to the principles and doc-the two seas, termed the "River of column for one year eighteen devoted to the principles and doc-the two seas, termed the "River of column for one year eighteen fill up the cellars and dig up the pavesurest vehicle of the expression of trines they advocate, who love truth Egypt," becomes unquestionable. make the APPEAL emphatically a most power so long as they re- "River of Egypt," and obliteration of newspaper in the widest and best sense frain from everything that partakes its channel by desert sands, were subof that terro. It shall contain some- of coarseness, indelicacy or vulgarity, jects of prophetic declamation. Isaiah thing about everything that concerns In controversy there is no weapon so | xix, 5, 6, says: " And the waters shall the public. In addition to our regu- effective or so dazzling es that which fall from the sea, and the river shall lar prees dispatches, we shall furnish is strictly accordant to the laws of be wasted and dried up, and they copious specials, from every quarter, polished antagonism; while coarse as- shall turn the rivers far away-the when anything of interest transpires. saults produce no impression except brooks of defense shall be wasted and In regard to politics we shall make on coarse natures, and then only dried up." Egypt's amazing wealth the Constitution our chart and com- a transitory effect. It has been too in the olden time was not, as we have pass, with a full apprehension of the often the case that Memphis jour- been led to believe by the present sacredness which pertains to an in- nalism has been disfigured by a very physical aspect of the country between strument so hallowed; with a full exceptionable tone of both taste and the Suez canal-the River of Egyptrememberance of all that has been morals. Men of talents for caus- and the Nile, derived from comme done by the Democracy since the tic bitterness are often prompt- cial intercourse with cities that lined beginning of our national life, to ed for the sake of power and the shores of the Mediterranean, and interpret that supreme law clearly popularity to minister to the all that incalculable power which and justiy; to define its limits; depraved appetite for what is existing, reared the pyramids and lifted up to inculcate submission to its behests; or what may afford a moment's low monumental cities, whose massive frantic hands which have often been certain classes of readers, they may "went down to the sea in ships." raised to destroy it. The limits of be indelicate, trifling or even ridicu- From the River of Egypt to the Nile, over which the Democracy of Amer- seldom afford to be serious or in earnest plain, rich in all that conduces to naica have never, in the hottest political lest they incur the imputation of tional and commercial greatness. But chase, been known to leap. Indeed, heaviness or stupidity, and hence the prophetic declarations of the it is a matter of proud reflection to they adopt the cutting, slashing and hoary old sear were fulfilled; the Democrats, that the charter of our trenchant style. The rule of cour- River of Egypt disappeared; desert liberties, as a people, is the foundation tesy is evidently best, and it is cer-sands swept over its marshes; it was of their principles, as a party; that tainly most pleasant. Violence and "wasted and dried up." True enough these principles are not the untried above are always a positive loss of in- there was similitude in many physidogmas of political enthusiasts, fluence and dignity, whether dis- cal sspects of the Nile and of the River growth of passion or prejudice; the columns of a newspaper. Even if then confounded in biblical song and growth of passion of prejudice; the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and, instead of furnishing him with the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and, instead of furnishing him with the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and, instead of furnishing him with the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and, instead of furnishing him with the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and, instead of furnishing him with the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and, instead of furnishing him with the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and, instead of furnishing him with the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and, instead of furnishing him with the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and, instead of furnishing him with the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper, and it is the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a newspaper. Even if the columns of a newspaper is the columns of a new law of the land, which have grown to corruption and expose falsehood, that and gazed with dreamy eyes into the it and become a part of it-gradual can be done at no great sacrifice of shadowy past, the River of Egypt, accretions of wisdom, dropping from composure or dignity, and without recreated by modern art and toil, gave the revered lips of patriots and states- bitterness of language. The severest to the fathers of the Pharaohs a demen, and hardening, year by year, rebukes, reprimends, invectives and gree of wealth and commercial power into a system as firm as the eternal exposures known to English literature unrivalled in ancient or modern -those whose pungency have given times. Poets who sang the story of Concerning the course of the Ar- an immortality surviving any other Judean glory, with that license which PEAL as to the questions which recollection of the offense-show an makes a day a succession of have, of late, divided the Democratic absence of temper, excitement and ages, and a succession of days home and hearthstone, the Appeal for distribution here.

Actuated by a sense of the duties of an anomal sense of the duties of the history of our country. It is by our lation of the country is full of illustrations, from now and then confounded the two anomal sense of the duties of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of $19,000. Missed the site of the high figure of tions in California and Maine proclaim fault of ardent minds, that in- Egypt, and biblical critics, until the sylvania and Ohio, and the consequent shouts of the triumphant enemy, will be a high tribute to the Appeal, and a withering rest of the Hebrews. Since you will near them with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with a product of one of the most gifted and eloquent with a product of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of one of the most gifted and eloquent with great of the processes and writz always with a profession, desire to see it character, and strive at all lated by a fraternal brotherhood, and she profession, desire to see it character, and strive at all lated by a fraternal brotherhood, and she profession, desire to see it character, and strive at all lated by a fraternal brotherhood, and she profession, desire to see it character, and strive at all lated by a fraternal brotherhood, and she profession, desire to see it character, and strive at all lated by a fraternal brotherhood, and she profession, desire to see it character, and strive at all lated by a fraternal brotherhood, and she profession, desire to see it character, and strive at all lated by a fraternal brothe brought disaster upon a party that culated to provoke personal rancor, or eries, we are the more impressed with was twelve months ago harmonious utterances impugning the private mo- the beauty and justice of the poet's and triumphant. But it is not too tives of men, and practice a high- commendation of the Bible: late to rally the scattered hosts of toned, manly, dignified courtesy. THE St. Louis Westliche Post, of lanx. Let us, for the future, ig. which journal United States Senator nore the discussion of matters Schurz is one of the principal editors, volving the safety of the States, upon ciples, their examples and their offi- Pharach; from the rolls of Chaldee which we must and will stand. If cial usefulness, they will tend to entegrity and organization of the party will be shattered, and ultimate ruin will be the result. If the Democratic party, in which party will cease its senseless and unprofitable wrangling, the watch fires Fiftcenth amendments were illegally estine, in the palaces of Babylon and cotton brokers and the banks. The -and the conversation turning on the will again blaze in the valleys and adopted; that they cannot accept dungeons of Rome--have come down Court even held that the directors of man exclaimed, "Ah, bishop—the from the hill-tops; and the sparkling from the old flint will ignite a flame of Pennsylvania did not represent accuracy that we stand as if of the gentlement, and that the State Convention to us in such unimpaired fullness and the bank, by approving or ordering proof, the proof! If we not the act of the cashier, could not Then Mr. Owen resumed: "I do not whose more than mid-day splendor the party in adopting the ninth reso-eration which gazed upon the Book release him. It thus happens that the believe—and here I speak also for her whose more than mid-day splendor the party in adopting the initial resource in the party in the party in adopting the party in the part "The negro race should be protected hung on the lips of Jesus as he recited cashiers indemnifying bonds for vast firmly in these trees that spread their Let criminations and recriminations by all lawful means in their lives, a parable on the shores of the Galli- sums, or effect the sale and transfer to shade over us, in this hill on which cesse. Without this, a common ruin their liberty and their property, and lean lake. This river of life, that has flowed from the throne of God, awaits as all. With union and harmonic their liberty and their property, and lean lake. This river of life, that has flowed from the throne of God, manner defined in the terms stipulation and harmonic their liberty and their property, and lean lake. This river of life, that has flowed from the throne of God, manner defined in the terms stipulation and harmonic their liberty and their property, and lean lake. This river of life, that has flowed from the throne of God, manner defined in the terms stipulation and harmonic their liberty and their property, and lean lake. This river of life, that has flowed from the throne of God, awaits as all. awaits is all. With union and har by the enjoyment thereof and to has howed from the union and har manner defined in the could wish, we would be able to witness, leaving as pursue their own happiness; but we through so many centuries, may the interest among granted, perishes never more, A falo, bere and now do further reaffirm that we could wish, we would be able to witness, leaving as behind desolate witness, leaving as behind desolate witness, leaving as behind desolate.

bring back the Government to its pristine simplicity and purity; corpristine simplicity and purity; corpristing the red sea even unto the sea of the lous helper of business. Indeed, there is no way in which a little money of 1806. He exhibited a leaden ornation of 1806. He exhibited a leaden ornation of 1806. rect its abused patronage, its prodi- are in purpose identical. In the Book will do so much to increase trade as ment, apparently a tag to a roll or rect its abused patronage, its prodi-gality and corruption, and having no other end than the public good, and employing no means that are not Egypt." The word sihor having ref- four lines, day after day, if trade be of Mr. Fasset, that in 1753 the ancient employing no means that are not Egypt." The word sinor having religional and obviously erence to "marshes" now penetrated conducted properly, the advertising deep and wide, bearing at that date just. Entertaining these views, it is by Lesseps' canal. In the Book of will pay-pay largely. proper that we should pretermit the Numbers, there is further confirmsdiscussion of all questions likely to dis- tion of the statement that the "River turb the harmony of the party. We of Egypt" was not the Nile. Moses have su abiding faith that the Demo- tells his people "the border shall cratic party in National Conven- fetch a compass from Azmon unto the bers. Then let us all, with a spirit and traced the boundaries he defined they would no longer complain of rising unto chivalry, and a love deep- would never have dreamed of conening into reverence, cling to the Na- founding the western confines of record of art, science, literature, poli- faults, it stands solitary, imperial, the River of Egypt and the Great ties, morals and religion. To supply unequaled, and, we dare say, ineradi- Sea," have reference only to the Mediterranean and the river of old whose APPEAL, charges three hundred and

and are anxious only to diffuse Physical facts, and the marshes pene-

"Book of Books, of all the best, famous Britis' reviewer, there quered with full pockets, we shall be Owen witnesses"-from the start as of Ninevah our fathers gave us, and once more one time with a well-known Presby-National Convention.

e should convention.

A Buried City in Maine

heart does in man; diffusing a vital interests of the history of Maine, to maple trees eighteen inches in diame In regard to the amount charged for ter. He also exhibited pipes from the advertising, we wish to say a few apparent ruins of an ancient factory words. We have the rates of most of there of the patterns of pipes of clay the leading papers published in the United States for advertising, and if these who blogle at the price above. tion assembled, will adopt a River of Egypt and the goings out of those who higgle at the price charged belonging to the times of James the sequently created a demand for the platform which will command the it (the debouchement) shall be at the by the Memphis papers could see I and Charles the II of England, platform which will command the it (the debouchement) shall be at the enthusiastic support of all its memsea." Those who listened to Mosc; what is charged in other cities, compared with the specimens shown. Spoons of the pattern of the Eliza-Memphis rates. For advertising the bethan period, and in all respects like South Carolina Land Distribution the those dug up at Gosnold's Landing ening into reverence, cling to the Na-tional Democracy through sunshine Solomon's Kingdom with the river for the same advertisement a promthe daily journal is required to be a and storm; for whatever may be its Nile. The words of Joshua, "unto for the same advertisement a prominent St. Louis paper which her a cir- cality of N. Harbor, where heaps of culation not four times that of the shot from the size of a builet to a No. have been taken out, fifty pounds at To our cotemporaries we can only course is defined to-day by the Suez forty dollars! over six times as much as weight, within the past five years, by By we shall scrupulously observe the canal. When Solemon, as recited in the APPRAL, The lowest rate charged his affiant, Joshua Thompson of N. amenities of the profession. If we the Book of Kings, gathered his peosequently, numbers among its con-tribators the finest writers and have an enemy in its ranks, we know this place are the ruins of an an-electronic deliars, and have an enemy in its ranks, we know the highest three thousand dollars, and this place are the ruins of an an-electronic deliars, and this place are the ruins of an an-electronic deliars, and the highest three thousand dollars. Walls five feet thick, which, forty-seven At this place are the ruins of an anbrightest intellects of the country. with not only no resentments, but Hamath with the River of Egypt"— At the first glance this seems to be years ago, was overgrown with very The newspaper, as now conducted, cherishing a cordial good will for all there were no Egyptians, none from becasts into the shade every other mode of communication, as it is exactly suited to the factor of our box suited to the factor of our box of communication as it is exactly suited to the factor of our box of our columns would amount to ments, and erase the remains.

priate. 'And, what about a funeral ermon?' I saked. 'No,' she replied, often unmerited praise. But I should like,' she added, 'that some one, who only twenty-six thousand dollars, while our expenses are one hundred Robert Dals Owen at the Grave of thousand dollars a year, The Chicago 2ribune asks and receives twenty-six thousand dollars for a column of advertisements for a year. A column in of eight lines each. The lowest rate the ceremonies were conducted at the charged for a column of business ad- grave. vertisements in the New York Herald for one year is thirty-nine thousand seven hundred and twelve dollars, that, as to funeral ceremonies, the and the highest rate, two hundred and | wishes of the departed on that subforty-eight thousand two hundred ject should, as far as possible, be and ninety-four dollars, and the She said she would not wish to have highest rate for the same any bell tolled at her funeral, especial-A column of the Tribune contains wish her death to be the occasion of each. Other leading newspapers published in New York, and in the prin- deed, but also hopeful and encourcipal Eastern, Southern and Western aging, with nothing of the despondcities, charge rates correspondingly ing and sepulchral about t; for high. The Chicago Tribune probably circulates 20,000 copies; the New York Tribune, 40,000; and the New York not an ordinary funeral sermon; for

The attention of the business men is cheaper in Memphis than any other grave.'

Earnestly desirous of the South's being at the time a lady, a dear friend welfare, and refraining from every act of hers, seriously ill at my house. and leaving no word unsaid to build Then I selected, 23 suitable for music open to encourage such efforts and tively few feel any absolute certainty chronicle such triumphs. When we about it. Even the most earnest and Atheists and deists have uttered eloquence in vain. As was said by a have fought this good fight, and conmasters, as we once were, in the land | which he had had on the subject, at

The wheat crop of England is very and torsaken for a few years on earth, but no death. We never go down to

The last "field day" of the Maine within the tomb. It is cast off garments—sacred, indeed, as are sacred mark the "beginnings" of New Engimitate her example than speak her praise. Well has a great poet and thinker reminded us:

The slumberers of the tomb.'

were sung. It reads as follows: THE OTHER WORLD. It lies around us like a cloud—
A world we do not see;
Yet the sweet closing of an eye
May bring us there to be,

Its gentle breeses fan our cheek, Amid our worldly cares; Its gentle voices whisper love, And mingle with our prayers.

And in the hush of rest they bring Tis easy how to see How lovely and how sweet a pass The hour of death may be, To close the eye and close the ear. Wrapped in a trance of bliss, And gently laid in loving arms, To swoon to that—from this.

Scarce asking where we are, To feel all evil sink away, All sorrow and all care. Sweet souls around us watch us still, Press nearer to our side, Into our thoughts, inte our prayers, With gentle helpings glide.

A dried and v nished stream Your joy be the realisy, Our suffering life the dream. The first four verses, before

It was painted for VII. The picture seems to express the miseries of huafflicted and distressed to look to and relief. The upper part of the The New Harmony (Ind.) Register, of last Monday, says: "Her funeral was early on Sunday morning last, the weather being most beautiful, and of Memphis is called to these figures, has the same ideas of death that I and paid him only sixty dollars, and paint an altar-piece for the church, from four to ten times the amount than ten years her senior, expected to go before her, but it was known the merits of the picture, dewocal instrumentalist.—Letter in Mising that place was a large number of otherwise ordered. Then I sought to claring he knew only two painters in fulfill her wishes. I requested that the world, Raphael and Domenischino.

"The village of Wyoming, as you collection of distinguished names may times to give their views every promi-nence possible, consistent with other duties. We believe the South's fu-duties. We believe the South's future strength lies in the South's soil, mortality. You remember the text: still more flowing and lofty, until his Shakspeare was the son of a poor man dead, then is Christ not risen; and if glimpses imilar to that of Milton:

related conversations He then, in words of one inspired, pre tive in a silk mill. Daniel Defoe, the dicted the coming conflict, with its author of "Robinson Crusoe," began

'That man when laid in lonesome grave Shall sleep in death's dark gloom, Till the eternal morning wake

"Such is not Christ's doctrine. "To day'-he said to the repentant thief lieve as she did, in the meeting and recognition of friends in heaven. While we mourn here below, there enough for that? Yet there are those LARGEST SCHOOL IN THE SOUTH world. I agreed with her also in the W. belief that there are in heaven duties, pose. Finally, I believe as she be-YOUNG LADIES' ACADEMY been singing-in guardian care by the inhabitants of heaven exercised to- St. Catherine of Sienwa. ward those of earth. As to the virtues and good deeds of her who has gear Springfield, Washington Co., Kentucky, left us, if nearly forty years' life and conversation in our village suffice not in witness, any word, from me would ader the Patronage of the Very

He mourns the dead who live as they de-Then the last four verses of the ode

Sweet hearts around us throb and beat, Sweet helping hands are stirred; And palpitates the vell between With breathings almost heard.

Scarce knowing if we wake or sleep

Let death between us be as naught-above remarks, were sung to the old Scottish melody of "Auld Lang Syne;" the lest four at the close, to the air of "Home, Sweet Home,"]

"They were opened by Mr. Owen himself. He saia:

"I think it a commendable custom great painting, he was himself called and I had a conversation on funerals. was sent by the French, when they occupied Rome, to the Louvre, in Mrs. Walker said, as she knelt on the Paris, but was returned in 1815. Ra- stage beside me: "Hark! hear ye not phael's Madonna of Foligno is very how sighing on the wind comes the Music, she said, she thought, fitting; music, serious and appropriate in-Royal gallery at Dresden. There are lifted her six inches off the boards merous other paintings of Raphael with my first blast. That seemed to gloom seemed to her most inappro-St. Jerome, by Domenischino, which all my fears of ruptured blood-vessels, these usually contain unmeaning and the bell should not be tolled, there Predicting the Wyoming Massacre. A correspondent of the New York Evening Post, writing from the Dela- writer seems disposed to controvert

ATTURRETS-AT-LAW.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE Sir Richard Arkwright, the inver

e engineer, began life as a mechanic

A Kit-Cat Toast.

The prettiest story of the Kit-cat ion when lords and wits were pro-lying about the best room at the ESTES & JACKSON. Attorneys-at-Law. Nos. 15 and 17 Madison Street. MEMPRIS, TENNESSEE.

McDOWELL & JOHNSTON, Attorneys-at-Law. No. 15 Madison Street, MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE.

EDUCATIONAL

NASHVILLE, TENN. E. WARD'S Seminary. Parents wish

-- OF --

THIS institution is situated two miles from Springfield, about a quarter of a lie from the Bardstown and Springfield unpike. It is conducted by the Sisters of a Order of St. Dominic, and is well provided ith competent and experienced teachers, so spare no pains to render the Academy withy of extensive patronage. The discince of the Institution will be firm and Morm, but mild and parental, while the rictest attention will be paid to the health, mfort and wants of the pupils. The course of adies embraces all the branches useful and namental. This institution was established 1822 and is situated in one of the healthed and most beautiful portions of the State, all is of easy access by rail from Louisville. It extensive farm is considerable advance over others. The Academy grounds are ensive and tastefully arranged. The things are erected with an eye especially health and comfort.

The Academic year commences on the first orday in September and and on the last educations of five monities each.

Terms per assain of few.

pleased her better than either, heard her wit and beauty extolled on every shan. Pleasure, she said, was too poor a word to express her sensations: A Little Personal Remisiscence. ney ascounted to esstasy; never I was an orchestra once, for ten again, throughout her future life, did minutes, and afforded great satisfacshe pass so happy a day. She thought of that innocent time, perhaps, when tion. Let me tell you all about it. It Pope lashed her with scorpions; and was in Troy, some years ago. Mrs. Walker, the excellent tragedienne, was playing the child of the Dismai igain, in her miserable old age, in Florence, when malice and scandal Swamp, the "Dutchess of Malfi," and had mangled her reputation, and rio- Interesting Relics of Cotonial Times.

a dark and desperate piece it is. Af- ted on her good name, ter a series of awful Gisasters, the unhappy duchess very properly goes out of her head. She is confined in a Coast. ring the entire scenes the groans and nati paper the following description cries of the demented are "neard out of bathing at the popular seaside re- cities of Great Britain for rare and side." To do this accompaniment in sorts in England and Scotland: The Two Finest Paintings in the shape, the manager had the orchestra, all able-bodied Dutchmen, who were the bathing begins. The bathing mathis mad juncture gathered in the jerked, by horses down to the water's green-room under the stage. A hole edge, If the bather has survived the was bored in the celling above, and a joltings of this operation, which hurls string attached to the prompter's desk him or her against the side of the maman life, and lead those who are was depended through it. In solemn chine, he or she descends a small ladconclave sat the Dutchmen-one with | der into the water. The women and Heaven as the only source for comfort the string in his hand-and as the men are appointed to different miralty jurisdiction over all the rivers prompter tugged it above, each one parts of the beach. This is done in and waters of the province. These composition is Mount Tabor; the for himself sent up a dismal howl that the name of decency. The real result three Apostles—Peter, James and lifted the hairs of the listners in front. is a maximum of indecency, so far as John-are prostrated on the ground, One night during the "Duchess of that nudity and exposure, in which are plans of General Martin's estate in overpowered by the supernatural light proceeding from the Divinity of room and enjoyed the wild beast are concerned. Up to the hour of 10 family painted in water-colors, and as Christ, who is floating in the air, show, as I called the howling musi- o'clock, the men bathe by hundreds brilliant as if just sent from the ease Christ, who is floating in the air, accompanied by Moses and Elijah. Below are nine Apostles, two of whom are pointing toward Heaven. There are numerous other expressive figures.

Before Raphael had completed this more approached an accompanied by Moses and Elijah. Show, as I called the howling musicians. Fietween one batch of howls without a rag on. After that they put on a rag; that is all—a strip of so-called drawers; just four inches wide. Decorum thus secured, they one of the sufferers dropped out. I was perched under a gas-light, deep in some novel period, when the string dred yards from where the other sex miniatures painted in water-colors of Governor Josiah Martin. Two miniatures painted in water-colors of Gillant as if just sent from the exict is a black-enamelied gold mourning ring, inscribed: "Elizabeth Martin, ob. 4 October, 1778, Æ. 44," the wife of Governor Josiah Martin. Two miniatures painted in water-colors of Gillant as if just sent from the exict is a black-enamelied gold mourning ring, inscribed: "Elizabeth Martin, ob. 4 October, 1778, Æ. 44," the wife of Governor Josiah Martin. Two miniatures painted in water-colors of Gillant as if just sent from the exict is all and the put on a rag; that is all—a strip of so-called drawers; just four inches without a rag on. After that they of the illuminator. Another relic is a black-enamelied gold mourning ring, inscribed: "Elizabeth Martin, ob. 4 October, 1778, Æ. 44," the wife of Gillant as if just sent from the exict is a black-enamelied gold mourning ring, inscribed: "Elizabeth Martin, ob. 4 October, 1778, Æ. 44," the wife of Gillant as if just sent from the exict is a black-enamelied gold mourning ring, inscribed: "Elizabeth Martin, ob. 4 October, 1778, Æ. 44," the wife of Gillant as if just sent from the exict is a black-enamelied gold mourning ring, inscribed: "Elizabeth Martin, ob. 4 October, 1778, Æ. 44," the wife of Gillant as if just sent from the exict is a black-enamelied gold mourning ring, inscribed: "Elizabeth Martin, ob. 4 October, 17 commenced to wiggle violently. All are bathing. The theory of the female carried out when these wishes are away to the spirit land, to dwell with the demented were gone, the walls of bathlog is that the men are absent. dollars. A column of the Daily Herdollars. A column of the Daily Herknown. During Mrs. Owen's illness are known. During Mrs. Owen's illness and contains but thirty-four squares of she said nothing in regard to her eight lines each. The lowest rates for little beautiful the demented were gone, the waits or bathing is that the demented were gone, the waits or the damned were expected. I let one or two awful shrieks, thinking it one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely manner. The illustrious artist might help 'em up stairs, or one and two thousand thronglovely might help 'em up stairs, or one and two months ago it chanced, as men say, though there is no such thing as chance, but it had a conversation on funerally had a conversation of the sating the bathing men. No effort is made to secure any privacy. The fakept thrashing up and down, when age, and was carried before him at his funeral while the last traces of his I ever saw, left by one of the rene-trowsers being unknown; they are any bell tolled at her funeral, especially if there was any sickness near. She thought sick persons sometimes thought sick persons sometimes suffer I by hearing it, and she did not tempt at swimming being out of the question, the dames bob up and down -A bi uite ludicrously. These gowns have been used by successive generations celebrated and much admired; his mail of the lost spirits?" She paused of bathers until they are almost rags, finest Madonna, I think, is in the for the wall; I did my level best, and and the ways show those habited in them as little rospect as the gazers. in the Vatican, which I have not time inspire me. I ignored the stops that now to speak of. Next to the Transfiguration in merit is the Conversion achievements, but bidding farewell to achievements, but bidding farewell to ways hears the ladie ways hears the la or total deafness, or future punishduce them to go into the water so, tures in the world.

It was painted for the church, but

It was painted for the church, but

Within me, and have never had a
the hundreds of naked men. The
within me, and have never had a
the hundreds of naked men. The genuineness are at hand to certify to the monks quarreled with the artist, stomach ache since. But the audience truth is, England is many years be--they roared, and the manager hind other countries in its from which it will be seen advertising have, would express them at the just the picture out of sight. They cursed, and Mrs. Walker flew down arrangements. There is hardly a grave.' All this was said incidentalist cheaper in Memphis than any other grave.' All this was said incidentalist commissioned Poussin to the green-room stairs. There I was stream that is not alive with naked absorbed in my tremendous perform- men bathing, even though it be (as in in her mind that I might soon have and, instead of furnishing him with ance, unconscious of all beside the suc- the Thames) close to the most publi thoroughfares. It was complained in for superior circulation, they charge health at the time, and I, being more to be painted over. He refused to ner in which my orchestral essay was the council of Windsor, the other day,

> Men of Rumble Origin. Apropos to a letter in which the way station where she alights. up every material interest, and restore peace and prosperity to every world, and I had a few copies printed because of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the Wyoming massince 1860, when she first began to give public lectures, her income from the scenes of the ward when the scenes of lift the wheel from the mire, and start it with an impetus, derivable from no other source, on its career toward a richer prosperity and a more of the superior of the massacre. Attached, however, to this meeting humble farmer, and Franklin, who house was a scrap of unwritten historistic of death. Then we will humble farmer, and Franklin, who house was a scrap of unwritten historistic of the men of our own time. It finds against the "popular lecture" busingther of the men of our own time. It finds against the "popular lecture" busing the remaining portion of Mrs. Stowe's beautiful verses. And after ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one wears before the Revolutionary ward in the subject of death. Then we will humble farmer, and Franklin, who house was a scrap of unwritten historism. Stowers beautiful verses. And after ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one ward, if my esteemed friends Rev. Mr. Erwin one ward, if my esteement be a gentleman carefully selecting for her true, it affords a strong argument to the men of our own time. It finds against the "popular lecture" busing the remaining portion of Mrs. Stowers beautiful verses. And after true, it affords a strong argument to the measure.

Stowers beautiful verses are of unwritten historism and the remaining portion of Mrs. Stowers a serap of unwritten historism and the remaining portion of mrs. It finds against the "popular lecture" busing the remaining portion of Mrs. Stowers a serap of unwritten historism and the remaining portion of mrs. Stowers a serap of unwritten historism and the remaining portion of mrs. Stowers a serap of unwritten historism a richer prosperity and a more Mitchell and the Rev. Mr. Erwin, one years before the Revolutionary war cratic institutions. Pope, one of the times uses her own unsupported assera richer prosperity and a more substantial wealth than any ever yet enjoyed. We shall work and write and write always with a prois a woman of far inferior ability. in in Paris. be no resurrection of the kindling eye seemed to catch the is Christ not risen; and if glimpses of things unseen and to was the son of a small farmer; Allan pers. But one evening of the lady it, most deserves the civic crown. dead, then is Christ not risen; and if glimpses of things unseen and to was the subsect and to was the subsect and to conningham of a gardener; Hogg was was apparently enough, for her subsect and to conningham of a gardener; Hogg was was apparently enough, for her subsect and to conningham of a gardener; Hogg was was apparently enough, for her subsect and to conningham of a gardener; Hogg was was apparently enough, for her subsect and to conningham of a gardener; Hogg was was apparently enough, for her subsect and to conningham of a gardener; Hogg was was apparently enough, for her subsect and to conningham of a gardener; Hogg was was apparently enough, for her subsect and to conningham of a gardener; Hogg was less than the connection of the These columns, at least, shall ever be vain.' Few deny this; but compara- come. At length a vision broke upon a shepherd; Ebenezer Elliott worked quent performances were given to al- what a bustle you neake in fashi him, and he burst forth in language in an iron foundry; Falconer was a most empty benches. And it is ex-Moore was the ceedingly curious if she is able to com son of a grocer, who, however, con- mand so much larger audiences than -"O, what are these?"

this ministers, not men; who thus deal trived to give him a classical education; Gerald Massey is the son of a ple may think of her peculiar notions causi boatman, and began life as an on the subjects about which she discourses, is certainly one of the most taining a detailed history of the exerrand-boy, and was next an operabrilliant and pungent female crators that have ever addressed the Ameritry, together with the prospects of addeaux, Bishop of Worcester, got his perfect stream of gold is forever flow- steps, notably the English. About a A dispatch from London says that a submarine cable has been successfully laid between Nagesaki. Japan, and Rossiette, the new naval station of Russia on the sea, Japan. This gives two distinct telegraph routes between London and Japan.

deaux, Bishop of Worcester, got his education at Oxford, by entering the University as a kitchen boy. John Bunyan, author of the "Pilgrim's Progress," was a tinker, and entirely and Rossiette, the new naval station of Russia on the sea, Japan. This gives two distinct telegraph routes between London and Japan.

deaux, Bishop of Worcester, got his education at Oxford, by entering the University as a kitchen boy. John Bunyan, author of the "Pilgrim's America (North and South) and Australia brought back by those who have been fortunate in their career abroad, to spend and bequeath in the country bear ago an organization composed of the world. Not only are the thousands heaped up in India, China, America (North and South) and Australia brought back by those who have been fortunate in their career abroad, to spend and bequeath in the country bear of the world. Not only are the thousands heaped up in India, China, America (North and South) and Australia brought back by those who have been fortunate in their career abroad, to spend and bequeath in the country bear of the world. Not only are the thousands heaped up in India, China, America (North and South) and Australia brought back by those who have been fortunate in their career abroad, to spend and bequeath in the country bear of the world. Not only are the thousands heaped up in India, China, America (North and South) and Australia brought back by those who have been fortunate in their career abroad, to spend and bequeath in the country bear of the world. Not only are the thousands heaped up in India, China, America (North and South) and Australia brought back by those who have been fortunated in the country bear of the world. Not only are the thousands heaped up in India, China, America (North and South) and Australia brought back Several owners of elevators in Chicago are to be presecuted in the Criminal Court of that city for failing to take out a license.

A working steam engine that will not cover the space of a three cent coin has been exhibited at the Fair in Buffalo.

Worcester, Massachusetts, has elected delegates to the Republican State Convention who are hostile to Butler.

Miller, the geologist and journalist, was and journalist, who are journalist, was a quarryman. Camden, the great historian, was the son of a house paintage of this world, but the humbler class, who are injuy all the good things of this world, but the humbler class, who are injuy all the good things of this world, but the humbler class, who are printing press in England, was apprenticed to a weaver. The dramapprenticed to a staymaker, sam. Pepps was the son of a staymaker, sam. Pepps was the son of a staymaker. Sam. Pepps was the son of a staymaker. Sam. Pepps was the son of a loiner. Among scientific men, slimpson, the mathematician, was a weaver. Captain Cook was the son of a point of that city for failing to the reward-togodom the first to see any of the sum of the failing to the remains of Palestine will be reward-togodom the ruins of Palestine will be reward-togodom the fullest success and we will be reward-togodom the fullest success and the ruins of the fulles

the narrative of his son's voyages. Beauty at Her Tellet. A correspondent of the Chicago of the cotton-spinning machine, comnenced life as a barber. Brindley, road from San Francisco to Chicago, writes: "On that Wednesday morn Sir William Herschel, the illustrious ing I had interrogated the plains at astronomer, was a musician in the first dawn, but, repelled by their sad band of a regiment. Farraday, the chemist and natural philosopher, was with disappointment. Sunrise came monotony, I fell back in my berth the son of a blacksmith. Ferguson, the astronomer, was a shepherd.

John Hunter, the celebrated surgeon, attracted toward a stateroom which and his brother, William, the eminent was just beyond me on the opposite physician, were sons of a farmer. Chantrey, the sculptor, was a milk-boy; and Flaxman, another great sculptor, was the son of a plaster-cast maker. Sir Thomas Lawrence, the It was she-the slender, spirituelle painter, was the son of an inn-keeper. bride. The fond husband was lather-painter, was the son of an inn-keeper. Opic, the painter, worked in a sawpit, and Hogarth, the satirist, began life as a working engraver of coats of arms. Cobden, the statesman was the son of a farmer. Sir John, Hawkins, the famous general, began life as a housebuilder. These names may serve to set our correspondent thinking.—

Philadelphia Ledger.

bride. The fond husband was lather ing himself before the mirror in the wash room—and she availed herself of his absence to resume the proper garniture of day.

She sat so that I had at hree-quarter view of her back. She sat on her berth, with her eyes fixed on the mirror in the wall. Her alabaster shoulders were bare; and a naked foot houlders were bare; and a naked foot with rosy toes peeped out from the mass of white upon which she was seated. Her arms were bare to the shoulders, save a narrow bridge of toasts is that related by clever, ec-centric Lady Mary Wortley Monarms went wilderingly around in all tague, of her own adventure as a kinds of many twinings and interchild: On the night of general electwinings, as their fair owner arranged her beauteons locks. sing this or that beauty, and "dark Many of those curly nests of atyes," "blue eyes," "swan neck," bosom of Juno," "bust of Diana," the day before, were taken from and such phrases from the poets were box, where all the night they had had he supreme pleasure of resting by the Trumpet, as the flasks of Florence and feet of their charming mistress. How Burgundy were being loudly unthese locks grew from thin nothing corked, and the guests drew closer for ness into a mazy coiffure that was as the business of the evening, a whim suddenly seized Evelyn Pierpoint, Duke of Kingston, to nominate his the slender waist, and long fingers little girl, then not eight years of age, came around behind and dafily wove declaring that she was far prettier up the raveled woof, whose complete than any lady on the day's list. The than any lady on the day's list. The other members demurred, because the tion was a close and envied embrace. Then a critical glance into the mirror, rules of the club forbade the election of any beauty whom the members of the club forbade the election as the head turned from side to side, and the slender fingers moved here a the club had not seen. "Then you shall see her" cried the duke, and inmade the tout ensemble the more co stantly sent a message home to have the little lady dressed in her best, and quettish and charming.

And then the long and shape brought to him at the tavern. She hands went down into the box and presently appeared from her sedan, fished forth a twin combination of an shy at first, and wondering. She was shy at first, and wondering. She was received with acciamations, and her claim manipums of the color, and looked like an imclaim; unanimously allowed, her mense pair of goggles, save that their health was drank upstanding by all the whig gentlemen, and her name converse surfaces were accurately rounded like the exterior of a hemia rounded like the exterior of a hemiduly engraved with a diamond upon phere. The twin combinations she a drinking glass. She was then pessed round, like a bouquet, from the lap of one poet, patriot, statesplaced carefully within her corsets, at the upper edge, in front, and then she glanced into the mirror and regarded the blissful twin concavo-convexities man, to the arms of others, was feasted with sweetmeats, overwhelmed with caresses, and, what perhaps already the bisson two with approximately the bisson two caresses, and, what perhaps already

Just here I blushed at discovering what I was doing, and I at once withdrew my eyes. What! gaze thus upon an innocent, beautiful creature as she puts on the armor of her charms! Never will I be guilty of a clandestine operation of such a nature. And I persistently looked out of the window upon the sad wastes of the plains.

Mr. William H. Pars, of the pubishing house of Messrs. D. Appleton Strange Exhibitions on the English & Co., who has just returned from Europe, where he has been engaged M. D. Conway sends to a Cincin- during the past summer searching among the book-stalls of the variou papers, which are in perfect preserv ion and authenticated by a formida ble waxen seal (one seal apparently documents bear the date of 1771.

ivory, and said to be the work of Gil ordinary interest in the collection They are portraits of Governor Mar

arms of the Governor, and used for interesting collection

These documents and other relic come declare that nothing could in- portraits and documents bear the un-ing that place was a large number of overheard a curly-headed little maid naked men dabbling around the rail- en, who was frizzled and pane exclaim, 'Oh, I like the Indepe newspaper, and, somewhat surprised. and that last season it amounted to Evening Post,' chimed in a stylish this city her first appearance was uncertain whether to laugh or to feel greeted with a very large audience, attracted to hear her by the reports of har success they had read in the papers. But one evening of the lady

Think of it, Mr. Tilton! think of it, Mr. Greeley! did it ever occur to you

> Explorations in Palestine The Palestine Exploration Society have recently issued a pamphlet con-